TV's Diller Finds Painless Way To Watch It... Turn Sound Off

Phyllis Diller, the funny lady with the high-pitched, ironic cackle, proved her formula for watching TV is still valid. She has discovered a way to watch TV without hurting your ears. You should see the reaction of some of the people who had never heard her before. It's amazing how many people don't know why they keep her off their screens.

They Don't Shoot to Kill Anymore

By SAVANT LORON

HOLLYWOOD, Aug 14—Robert Taylor, happy Congressman, has been known to throw a punch or two in his career. Now he finds himself in the same room without sound. It's a situation he finds difficult to understand. "Why don't they shoot me to kill anymore?" he asks.

Radio Log

MONDAY, AUGUST 14, 1961

9:00 KAMU

830 KRLA

870 WAAM (FM 92.5)

10:40 KHJ

11:00 KOOL

900 KGO

Scott Mason's Condition Still 'Guarded'

Scott Mason, internationally known for his broadcasts on "Monte Carlo Last Night," has been admitted to St. Francis Hospital in San Francisco. Mason had been drinking heavily and was taken in an ambulance to the hospital. He was found to have a toxic blood alcohol content and was rushed to the emergency room.

Legal Notices

NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS

The Board of Directors of the Bank of Hawaii will hold their next meeting on August 31, 1961, at 10:00 a.m. The meeting will be held at the Bank's headquarters in Honolulu.

Valuable Oil Maps Offer Bootleggers Chance to Get Rich

By CHARLES GREEN

HOUSTON, Tex., Aug 12—A massive federal investigation, spanning the length of the country, has led to the discovery of numerous secret oil maps. The maps have been sold to bootleggers at a staggering price. The investigation began when a bootlegger was caught with a map of a major oil field.

Ex-Isle School Teacher Returns After 30 Years for 11-Day Visit

A former Islander and renowned educator returned to Hawaii after a 30-year absence. The teacher, who is now retired, was particularly touched by the warm welcome he received upon his arrival. "It feels like coming home," he said.

The Maniac 6-14 with 757 passengers spirals out of control at 6,000 feet.

Monday, August 14, 1961 Tompkins Star-Bulletin 23